How to Handle Student Non-Compliance Outside the Classroom

Student is on campus without a mask and not social distancing:
- Ask non-compliant student to put on a mask. If the student forgot their mask, offer them one of the masks provided by the University.
- Student refuses to wear mask.

Student puts on mask. No further action required.

Try to get the student’s name and report them to the COM Senior Associate Dean of Students Affairs using the Medical Student COVID-19 Non-Compliance Report form:
http://med.fau.edu/students/covid-non-compliance.php

Ask if student is a graduate student or medical student:
- Medical Students
  - Ask if student is a graduate student or medical student

- Graduate Students
  - Try to get the student’s name and report them to the Dean of Students Office after class using the Non-Compliant Student Report form:
How to Handle Student Non-Compliance in the Classroom

- Student enters classroom without a mask.
  - Try to get the student's name and report them to the COM Senior Associate Dean of Students Affairs using the Medical Student COVID-19 Non-Compliance Report form: http://med.fau.edu/students/covid-non-compliance.php
  - Ask the student to exit the classroom, if the student exits, resume class. If the student refuses to leave, cancel class for the remainder of the period. Submit your plan to make up those contact hours to your Chair/Director and communicate the same to your students.

- Ask non-compliant student to put on a mask. If the student forgot their mask, offer them one of the masks provided by the University in the classroom.
  - Medical Students
  - Ask if student is a graduate student or medical student
  - Graduate Students
  - Try to get the student's name and report them to the Dean of Students Office after class using the Non-Compliant Student Report form: https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?f8f2fddc56146e5e53324e5612f532e9

- Student refuses to wear mask.

- Student puts on mask. No further action required.