What is an outside resource? An outside resource is any form of financial assistance you receive that is awarded to meet educational expenses, and is not awarded through the University's Financial Aid Office or processed through the University's, Controller, Foundation or Directed Research offices.

What is reported on this form? Any outside resource you receive that is not sent to FAU to apply toward your expenses. Examples are scholarship checks made payable directly to you or support provided by an outside agency that is intended to be used to meet your educational expenses. This includes any tuition remission you receive.

What is NOT reported on this form? Any aid that is processed through the University system, such as Florida Prepaid, Student Loans, FAU and COM Grants, FAU Tuition Exemptions, VA Educational Benefits, FAU or COM Scholarships, or scholarships payable to either FAU for your benefit, or to both you and FAU for your benefit.

Instructions:

If you have outside resources that are not awarded or processed through the FAU BANNER system, please enter that information below and submit this form along with documentation listed above to the Office of Medical Student Financial Aid.

If this information is not provided prior to your financial aid disbursement(s), and your total aid exceeds your budget/eligibility, you may be required to repay part of your previously disbursed financial aid.
